

OUNBLE fringe

4 to 13 July 2024

www.oundlefringe.org

Supporting local performers and venues

Most events are free!

*Events may be subject to change.
Please check www.oundlefringe.org for updates.*

Thursday 11 July

Dansella Oundle Market Place 12 noon
Period music, instruments and costume.

Steve Bean The Talbot Hotel 1pm
Classical guitarist with flamenco influence.

Dansella Yarrow Gallery 2pm
Period music, instruments and costume.

Rusty Strings The Talbot Hotel 7pm
Classical favourites performed by the string section of Oundle's Rusty Players.

Dan Hughes Onkar 8pm
Acoustic rock and pop from a talented singer/guitarist with a great range of songs.

The T100s and Kelly Jane The Ship Inn 8pm
Lively rock and roll/rockabilly duo plus acoustic pop and soul from singer/songwriter Kelly Jane.

Kettering Ukulele Plus The Talbot Hotel 8.30pm
Eclectic mix of dance tunes and songs including popular classics, gypsy jazz and traditional fiddle.

Friday 12 July

Thompson & Rogers Yarrow Gallery 12 noon
Enchanting flute and classical guitar.

Lucky Town UK The Greedy Piglet 1pm
Acoustic guitar/vocals duo mixing RnB & country.

Lounge Lizards The George Inn 6.30pm
High energy Anglo-American band nominated for best rock group in East Anglia by NMG Awards.

Poetry Evening The Talbot Hotel 6.45pm
Scott Coe, Stamford's Poet Laureate 2022, and Aiden Surridge, Stamford Youth Laureate 2023.

Peterborough Flute Choir The Talbot Hotel 7.45pm
Fabulous flute ensemble playing piccolo, concert, alto and bass flutes.

Disarray The Ship Inn 8pm
Rock, pop and indie songs from the 60s to today.

Saturday 13 July

Nic Aubury Oundle Library 11.30am
Witty and perceptive poems read by Nic from his new book 'Things My Children Think I'm Wrong About'.

BirchWoodKnight Salerno's 1pm
Old standards, jazz and toe-tapping instrumental folk tunes from the British Isles and America.

Caley Brown Yarrow Gallery 2pm
Acoustic duo playing traditional and original songs.

Oundle Fringe Art Exhibition

Yarrow Gallery 6 to 13 July 10-4pm

Wide range of original works by local artists & craftspeople: paintings, ceramics, sculpture & more.

The Oundle Treasure Trail

Start your Fringe Festival with a fun treasure trail focusing on Oundle's unique character. Entry sheets £2 from Woodford & Co, Market Place, and at most Fringe events from 4 to 7 July. Completed entries to the Yarrow Gallery by 4pm on 7 July. Results & prizes 8 July at The Ship at 6.15pm.

Book tickets online for Vintage Ceilidh 18 May £12
Fringe Quiz 8 July £5 each plus booking fee
www.ticketsource.co.uk/oundle-fringe-festival

All other events are free but if you wish you can show your appreciation with a donation for the performers in the famous Fringe bucket.

Thanks to our funders and sponsors

Thursday 4 July

Oundle Treasure Trail Sponsored by Woodford & Co
Pick up your entry sheet. Details on back page.

Drama on Tap The Ship Inn 8pm

Open mic: drama or comedy, sketches or monologues... come along and take part.

Jake Cunnington & Magnetic Pool George Inn 8pm

Singer/songwriter Jake plus original music inspired by 60s rock, pop and psychedelia from Magnetic Pool.

Friday 5 July

JP and The Hat The Greedy Piglet 1pm

Acoustic duo covering songs from The Beatles and Bruce Springsteen to Van Morrison & Paul Weller.

Stamford Shoestring The Talbot Hotel 6.45pm

Jane Austen's Life Hacks: Dramatised readings from an author who knew a bit about family life.

Troubadour Dexters 8pm

Kettering 5-piece playing Motown and rock covers from Stevie Wonder & Chaka Khan to Tina Turner.

The Kobras The Montagu Arms, Barnwell 8pm

Celebrating the influences and birth of British Rhythm and Blues from Yardbirds to Stones.

Saturday 6 July

CarterDolby The Coffee Tavern 1pm

Original compositions and covers from singer/songwriter/guitarist Matt and folk singer Lottie.

Next Generation Showcase The Ship Inn 2-5pm

The Violets

Talented young female three-piece acoustic band playing covers from Fleetwood Mac to Boy Genius.

Upon This Rock

Peterborough band aged from 14-16 with eclectic mix of 60s pop, hard rock and heavy metal.

Saturday 6 July continued

BandX The Montagu Arms, Barnwell 7.30pm

Cool Fender blues guitar, bass and drums.

Broken Heroes The Ship Inn 8pm

Classic rock covers: Stereophonics, The Killers, ZZ Top, Free, The Verve, AC/DC, REM, Simple Minds, The Cult...

Sunday 7 July

The Down County Boys Oundle Market Place 12 noon

High-energy, fast tempo music from the UK's longest established bluegrass band.

The Down County Boys Dexters 2pm

Banjo, mandolin, fiddle, guitar, upright bass and vocals: it must be bluegrass!

The Rusty Players Orchestra St Peter's Church 4pm

Popular classical music, perfect for a summer afternoon.

The Big Folk Session The Ship Inn 6pm

Bring your instrument or just come and listen.

Disarray The George Inn 6.30pm

Rock, pop and indie songs from the 60s to today.

Monday 8 July

Chris Sanders The Hub, Fletton House 12 noon

A collection of traditional folk songs telling tales of land and sea, past and present. (Hub ground floor.)

Nick Penny The Hub, Fletton House 1pm

Mesmerising harp and handpan music and insights into Nick's writing and music. (Hub upper floor.)

Treasure Trail winners announced The Ship Inn 6.15pm

The Fringe Quiz The Ship Inn 6.45pm

Lighthearted, slightly challenging quiz. £5 per person.

Wansford Ukulele Folk The Talbot Hotel 8.30pm

An entertaining and eclectic mix of music and songs from 24 happy strummers.

Tuesday 9 July

Caley Brown The Greedy Piglet 1pm

Acoustic duo playing traditional and original songs.

Steve Bean Oundle Library 1pm

Classical guitarist with flamenco influence.

Folk Dance Night The Talbot Hotel 7pm

Five String Thing lead an evening of folk dance with Peterborough Morris & Crosskey Clog.

Ice-9ine The George Inn 8pm

5-piece band playing original 'hybrid rock' drawn from a wide range of genres.

The Cellotapes The Talbot Hotel 9pm

Nottingham acoustic quartet playing blues, bluegrass, country, folk, jazz and original songs.

Wednesday 10 July

Mick Smith The Coffee Tavern 12.30pm

Music on guitar and mandolin from a member of bluegrass band Phantom Horse.

Regency Tea Dance Queen Victoria Hall 2pm

Learn the dances of the Jane Austen period and bring cakes or sandwiches to share for tea.

PennyLess Dexters 7pm

Roots folk music, blues and jazz from Penny Stevens on violin and Les Woods on guitar.

Guitar Concert Whitwell Room, The Talbot 8pm

Steve Bean classically trained guitarist with a flamenco influence.

Paul Mansell one of the top ten contemporary ukulele performers in the world.

Tomás Jimenez Spanish guitarist who has played prestigious flamenco events in the UK and Spain.

Sponsored by Savvi Travel